FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL, Dec. 4 -- Deb Bohannon (Pana), freshman forward, was a member of Eastern Illinois University's field hockey team this past fall. The Panthers finished the season with the best record in the school's history, 17-8-1 and placed in the top eight teams of AIAW Division II Championships held at Ithaca, NY, Nov. 19-21.

"Deb is a newcomer to field hockey, but picked up the sport very quickly," commented EIU first-year coach Beth Reichel. "We look forward to get many good things from her next year."

"As Deb herself wrote on a team poster which the entire team contributed their thoughts, "It's easy to learn when you're playing with the best."

Bohannon's older sister, Ann, is also a student-athlete on the EIU field hockey squad; Ann played at a link position.

Deb assisted on one goal this season.

Bohannon, a Math major, enjoys all sports particularly track and volleyball which she competed at the State-level in track (1980 and 1981) and at Regional-Level in volleyball her senior year at Pana Senior High School.

Deb is the daughter of John and Mary Bohannon, 301 South Grant, Pana, IL.
